

John S. Traynor

As Chief Investment Officer, John directs the overall investment process and has ultimate responsibility for the work of various investment committees. He also serves as the chief spokesman for the firm's investment outlook through regular strategy briefings. He appears regularly on CNBC, Nightly Business Report and Fox Business Network, as well as being quoted in the NY Times and Wall Street Journal.

Experience

Prior to joining People's United Wealth Management in 2011, John served as Director of Investment Strategy and Alternative Investments at Hawthorn, a $22 billion family office in the PNC Financial Services Group.

Affiliations

- Council of Churches, Board Member
- Fairfield County Community Foundation, Professional Advisors Council
- OARS—Chairman
- Patterson Club
- Saugatuck Rowing Club
- University Barge Club

Education

Villanova University, bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in finance

John S. Traynor

*Executive Vice President
Chief Investment Officer
Wealth Management
203-338-3229*